As a stimulus for consumers during the Corona pandemic, the German government reduced sales tax (or VAT) from 19% to 16% from 1 JULY 2020. All Telekom brands submitted this reduction, reducing all advertised tariffs and plans by about 2.5%, leading to very odd numbers. In this wiki, all rates remain unchanged as this is only a temporary tax cut until 1 JAN 2021, when the previous prices are resumed and From July to December 2020, a 2.5% discount is applied to the final price. T-Mobile Ringtone Deutsche Telekom is previously a state-owned, insular supplier. It is still the largest telecommunications company in Germany with the best network. For a time it was called T-Mobile as in the USA, but returned to its old name in Although it caters mainly to postpaid, it still offers prepaid, which was once called Xtra Cards. Keep in mind that their rates are the highest in the country and are often sold cheaper by its subsidiary Congstar and MVNO, not to mention its competitors. Telekom has won all network tests in the last decade in the country. It offers coverage where no other network does and speeds up mostly faster than its competitors. This should be your first choice if you need to have a stable Internet connection. They can be ordered online and sent to your German postal address, telekom shop (locator) and many other kiosks, filling stations, electronic retail chains, post offices and other outlets. Basically, they now offer two product lines for prepayment: Magenta Mobil Prepaid for voice, text and Data Start data for data only for data While a new voice card & date is available throughout, you may need to look for their card only for online data or in Telekom stores. Both starter packs are for €9.95 including a €10 credit and come in all three sizes. SIM cards should be activated in Telekom Stores at the point of purchase with an ID card. Some stores may be picky about your address. So think of one (hotel, B&B, etc.) Before. All SIM cards sold elsewhere must be activated online using a video ID. To do this, you need to have a stable Internet connection via WiFi and passport and address ready. Voice and data lines cannot be switched using data-only lines. Top-ups called Xtra Cash are sold in most supermarket kiosks, service stations and even at ticket machines across the country. The minimum top-up amount is €15. SIM cards and their credit remain active for 2 years after the last recharge. To check your credit, enter *10# &call&gt; SIM card registration[edit | source] Telekom is the most restrictive brand in Germany when it comes to SIM card registration. You can register it at one of their T-Point stores or with a video ID. If you want to register a SIM card on the Telekom network bring with you something official by name and address, such as a utilities bill. Magenta Mobil Prepaid (for voice, SMS and data)[edit | source] Their new voice card and SIM data was opened for 4G/LTE and was previously called MagentaMobil Start. It comes in different varieties.
